VALUE PROPOSITION

The above graph highlights the savings delivered to NSW Government through the use of State Contracts. Research outlined by an independent consultant by Gale Planning Group, demonstrates the aggregated savings across whole of government purchasing spend as being $360 million dollars minimum.

With its primary function being the delivery of business solutions and cost savings to the public sector, the team of specialists at NSW Procurement is continually reviewing processes in order to bring you even greater savings and enhance the range and quality of goods and services on offer.
