

Workplace Supplies

The new Workplace Supplies Contract provides core workplace supplies such as paper, stationery, toner and inkjet cartridges, janitorial items, kitchen and canteen items, and office and educational furniture.

The contract delivers savings, convenience and flexibility to Government agencies, NGO's and Local Councils by enabling the ordering of a wide range of products from a smaller number of suppliers.

6 CONTRACTS ROLLED INTO 1

The contracts that have been amalgamated into the Workplace Supplies Contract include:

- Office Supplies - c506
- Food Service and Catering Products - c407
- Housekeeping Products, Floor, Laundry and Washroom - c1618
- Office Furniture (Chairs, Steel and General) - c123
- Workstations - c308
- Furniture for Department of Education and Training - c1250

KEY BENEFITS

- A "Best-Price" Contract - a single price per supplier per item. This means that all clients receive the same pricing for items bought under similar circumstances.
- Projected overall savings of 5%<sup>1</sup> on price.
- Continuous Best Price and Benchmarking provisions work to facilitate improved pricing during the life of the contract.
- A single place to compare pricing and products of suppliers on this contract, via the smartbuy® nswbuy catalogue.

- A dedicated Environmentally Friendly Product (EFP) lot.
- Users can choose generic items over branded items, which may offer cheaper pricing and the opportunity for further savings to be realised.
- Reporting available that can assist agencies to realise efficiency savings over the life of the contract. Reports include order source reporting; generic sales reporting; order size reporting; warranties, refunds and replacements reporting.
- Full coverage of metropolitan, regional, and rural NSW.

PRODUCTS & SERVICES

The range of products available under the Workplace Supplies Contract fall under the following categories:

- General Office Supplies
